Feature Wine – 2017 Alpha Box & Dice Uncle Sauvignon Blanc

8.0

Region – Adelaide Hills

In Winemaker Sam’s words: If I am drinking Sauvignon Blanc, I want it tight, crisp and zingy, embracing the herbaceous characters, not denouncing them. We are blessed here in Australia with warm weather to provide plenty of flavour precursors in the grapes, so I pick on natural acidity to provide the backbone and use winemaking techniques to flesh out the body. The wine is all skin and bones, the tight lean crisp acidity creates a refreshing wine for acid addicts that’s more reminiscent of Riesling than classic Adelaide Hills Sauvignon Blanc.

Feature Wine – 2017 Alpha Box & Dice Tarot Grenache

Region – McLaren Vale

Grenache grows well in McLaren Vale as the climate is similar to its Mediterranean origins, maintaining pH and acid levels. The grapes were hand-picked in whole bunches when the balance between acidity and sugar levels were just right. The wine is easy drinking, rosy red in colour with strawberry, red fruits and savoury spice on the nose. The taste is gamey and juicy with hints of confectionary up front and easy on the back palate. Drink with pretty much any food. Enjoy.
